

If rattlesnakes, cottonmouths, alligators, scorpions, wasps, mosquitoes, chiggers, horseflies, spiders, palmetto stumps, swamp, sugar-sand, saw-grass, briars, wild pigs, or W.W.II ordnance bother you, then go on back to riding the road! The rest of you, come to Jonathan Dickinson State Park and ride!

Club Scrub is a bike club dedicated to building, maintaining and promoting the Camp Murphy Off Road Bicycle Trails at Jonathan Dickinson State Park, Hobe Sound, FL. The trails are maintained by a small group of volunteers and contrary to popular belief, the money you give at the gate doesn't go toward trail upkeep expansion. We operate solely on money and help from people willing to give a couple hours a month to make these trails possible. Why not come out and help us on the next work day?

Come out to the trail, enjoy yourself, and unleash your inner Scrubbie. Check out our calendar for events, meetings, and work days. Don't forget to sign up for our mailing list too. Go to www.clubscrub.org, it gets you the hookup for all the latest official Club business and events.
